Human Rights and Cultural Diversity

*In the Name of God
The compassionate, the Merciful*

27 April 2024

To: All NAM Members and Observer Countries and NAM affiliated entities

Subject: Call for articles and invitation to participate in the International Conference on Cultural Identity with an emphasis on National Cultural Identity

Excellency,

It is a pleasure to inform you that, in line with our commitment to implementing the provisions contained in the relevant NAM documents, particularly the final document of the 19th Summit of Heads of State and Government of the Non-Aligned Movement in Kampala, the Tehran Declaration and Programme of Action on Human Rights and Cultural Diversity (September 2007), and the Political Declaration and Programme of Action on Human Rights and Cultural Diversity - Tehran+10 (November 2017), and with the cooperation of NAM Member States and Observers, UN-related bodies, and other stakeholders, the NAM Center for Human Rights and Cultural Diversity will convene an International Conference on Cultural Identity with an emphasis on National Cultural Identity on July 30, 2024, in Tehran.

The upcoming conference is expected to bring together scholars, researchers, policymakers, and practitioners from the NAM Member States, Observers, and affiliated entities to exchange ideas, share experiences, and explore innovative approaches to the preservation and promotion of Cultural Identity with an emphasis on National Cultural Identity.

In this context, it would be grateful for your support in ensuring that the annexed information about convening the conference will be properly distributed and shared with the appropriate official authorities, institutions, and academies in your countries or your affiliated organization. The Center warmly welcomes submissions of original research articles, case studies, and theoretical papers that address the conference
